Cool Science Careers, Imagine Yourself: NEUROPSYCHOLOGY

Stroop test (computer on the left)

1. What does the Stroop test measure?

2. How long did it take you to finish the word sets?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Word set #1</th>
<th>Word set #2</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>_____ sec</td>
<td>_____ sec</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3. The Stroop effect refers to the fact that most people need more time to finish the second word set. Why is that?

Memory test (computer on the right)

4. Another word for working memory is ____________________________ memory.

5. What is the name of the brain structure involved in memory?

6. What is the average number of letters most people can remember?

Career information (bulletin board)

7. Neuropsychologists investigate the relationship between ________ and ________________

8. What is an example of a brain function?

9. List one skill that is required for a career in neuropsychology:

10. List one example career you can do with a degree in psychology:
Career interest questions: NEUROPSYCHOLOGY

What part of this career appeals to you?

___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________

What part of this career do you not like?

___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________